Petitioner, the U.S. Department of the Treasury (Treasury), hereby moves for an order authorizing Treasury to file not later than September 16, 2013, a renewed motion to quash and extending through September 16, 2013, Treasury's time to file an opposition to respondents' motion to lift stay (ECF No. 11). Counsel for respondents and for interested party Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) advise that they do not oppose the relief that Treasury hereby seeks.

By third-party subpoena under authority of this Court dated January 4, 2012 (Document Subpoena), respondents asked Treasury to produce certain documents allegedly relevant to respondents' claims in Counts 1-4 of Black v. PBGC, No. 2:09-13616-AJT-MKM (E.D. Mich.). By motion dated February 17, 2012, Treasury moved this Court to quash the Document Subpoena. ECF No. 1. By minute order dated May 17, 2012, this Court stayed sua sponte all proceedings with respect to Treasury's motion to quash pending a certain ruling in Black. To date, that ruling has not been forthcoming. By motion dated August 13, 2013, respondents moved this Court to lift the stay of Treasury's motion to quash and to compel Treasury to respond to the Document Subpoena. ECF No. 11. Treasury's response to respondents' motion is due August 30, 2013. By third-party subpoena of this Court dated August 20, 2013 (Deposition Subpoena), respondents have now asked Treasury to produce one or more witnesses pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) to testify at deposition on September 23, 2013, about matters allegedly relevant to respondents' claims in Counts 1-4 of Black. ECF No. 13-4.

Treasury wishes to file a renewed motion to quash that will address both the Document Subpoena and the Deposition Subpoena and to file a memorandum in support of that motion that will constitute its opposition to respondents' motion to lift stay. To provide time to do these things, Treasury asks that it be authorized to file its renewed motion to quash not later than September 16, 2013, and that its time to file its opposition to respondents' motion to lift stay be extended through that date. As stated above, Treasury's request is unopposed.

Respectfully submitted,
